Glenbrook South Senior Participates in Youth Leadership Institute, Makes Connections

Passionate about advocating for freedom of self expression, Glenbrook South senior landivi Peralta was encouraged by her AP Spanish teacher to apply for a coveted spot in the Youth Leadership Institute hosted by the Hispanic Leadership Fund, and was accepted.

This past summer, landivi spent an intensive four days participating in interviews and workshops that assist Latino students who plan on attending a four-year college. During this event, landivi was able to make connections with people in admission offices, people who offer internships, and a support group to rely on during the process.

Her Glenbrook Stories video will share a look into what it's like to explore the unknown and connect with others on a national level.
