

To: Board of Education
From: Brad Swanson
Date: April 23, 2018
Re: Appointments: Certified

Band Teacher; Fine Arts Department - GBN
Mr. Daniel Briggs

Degree(s):

M.S. Administration and Supervision, Johns Hopkins University
B.A. Music Education, University of Dayton

Certification(s):

Secondary (Band, Orchestra and Vocal)
General Administration

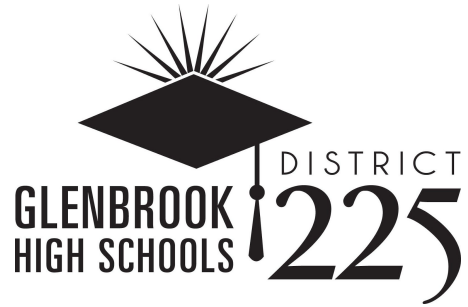

Professional Experience:

Daniel has successfully led band programs at John Carroll School in Bel Air, Maryland, as well as Brother Rice High School and Loyola Academy in the Chicago area. As a director of bands, Daniel created new standards of performance as pertained to important school culture events and also created a new paradigm for how students rehearsed and assessed their own performance. Daniel is also currently serving as the Performing Arts Department Chair at Loyola.

Salary: $83,774 (MA, Step 14, 1.0 FTE)

*Salary is subject to change pending collective bargaining.

Start Date: August 20, 2018

To: Board of Education
From: Brad Swanson
Date: April 23, 2018
Re: Appointments: Certified

School Psychologist - GBOC
Ms. Lisa Harper

Degree(s):

- M.A. Educational Leadership, Northeastern Illinois University
- Ed. S. School Psychology, Loyola University
- M.Ed. Educational Psychology, Loyola University
- B.A. Applied Psychology, University of Illinois, Chicago

Certification(s):

Secondary (School Psychologist)

Professional Experience:

Glenbrook High School District 225 is excited to welcome back Lisa Harper as a School Psychologist at the GBOC building. Lisa is currently completing her administrative internship, but has been a school psychologist and placement coordinator in the district from 2007-2017. Prior to 225, Lisa also served two years as a school psychologist for the North Suburban Special Education District. In her role at GBOC, Lisa will continue to lead multi-disciplinary meetings and the Case Study Evaluation process, perform Functional Behavior Assessments and create Behavior Intervention Plans, and provide consultation to teachers for students with profound and unique behavioral, emotional and learning challenges.

Salary: $96,158 (MA+60, Step 13, 1.0 FTE)

*Salary is subject to change pending collective bargaining.

Start Date: August 20, 2018