Interoffice Memo

The Glenbrook High Schools

To: Dr. Michael Riggle
Fm: Diane Freeman
Re: Students and Staff Who Excel
Date: December 8, 2008

An unprecedented event: 24 hours of live television broadcasting from Glenbrook South High School – and an unprecedented result: $107,426 raised to benefit Youth Services of Glenview/Northbrook. The Glenbrook South Dreams Big Telethon represented a collaboration of Youth Services and Glenbrook South High School. Host and emcee Jim Shellard was the producer. Local dignitaries and legislators stopped by to lend their support. Nearly 500 students performed in skits, mini-productions, music, band, orchestra, drama and more. Television broadcasting teacher Mark Ferguson was the television producer with an intrepid crew who worked 24 hours straight. Dr. Shellard, Mark Ferguson and lead students will be at the meeting to discuss the event.
